Resolutions

We, your committee appointed to draft resolution of sorrow and respect on account of the death of Brother F. M. Zuck, beg leave to submit the following, to wit:

WHEREAS, Winslow Lodge, No. 535, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, is once more called upon to mourn the loss of a beloved Brother; another vacant chair confronts us as we assemble together; another name is inscribed on our Memorial Tablet and again at the appointed hour our hearts swell and throb as we think of him who has passed to the great beyond.

In accordance with the immutable laws of nature and of nature's God, our beloved Brother, F. M. Zuck, has left us forever. Mortality has put on immortality. Time has been exchanged for eternity, there to solve the problem of the ages. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, the Winslow Lodge, No. 535, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks has lost a beloved and honored member. A charter member of No. 535, he was ever ready with all his means and energy to advance the spirit of Brotherly love. His heart shed kindness as the sun sheds light. Fraternity was to him not a word, but an inspiration. We realize that our veneration can accomplish nothing for him; our energies cannot disturb nor render more profound his dreamless sleep; that flowers and all the sweet tokens of our love and esteem cannot win for us a single whispered word from the voiceless depths of the grave, but respect paid to the memory of those who are gone will engender respect in those who are living. Flowers may wither on the rounded mounds in the city of the dead but their sweet fragrance will forever be in the mourning hearts that have been soothed.

They who know the ways of the Lord know that all is well with our Brother. He hath done what he could his faults are written upon the sand, but his virtues are inscribed on the tablets of love and memory.

To the sorrowing relatives we extend our heartfelt sympathy. We mourn with them but should we not rather rejoice.

How meet it is when life's labor is done; when the duties we have been called upon to perform are accomplished; when we have fulfilled our mission and grown weary with the exertion thereof, that we should lay down to rest and reap the reward of a well spent life, and Hope's great throbbing star above the darkness of the dead impresses us in the belief that again we shall meet in the countless ages of Eternity. And be it further

RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes; a copy be sent to the family of our Brother, and a copy be sent to the Winslow and Holbrook papers for publication.
GEO. P. SAMPSON,
T. J. HESSER,
W. S. FIELDS,
Committee.
